

GAZETTE SUPPLEMENT.

HONOLULU, APRIL 14, 1869.

LATE FOREIGN NEWS.

American News.

NEW YORK., February 27.—A. H. Barney, President of Wells, Fargo & Co's Express, states that the Union Pacific Railroad will not open for a week. There have been no through trains either way since the 18th.

WASHINGTON., February 27.—The committee for reconstruction has passed a resolution to make no report in relation to the representation of Georgia, determining to leave the question as it is. This is said to be in accordance with the views of Grant, who, in a conversation with Mr. Young, a Representative from Georgia, said he could not see how Congress could avoid recognizing Georgia as a State in the Union. He was in favor of non-interference.

The motion of Mr. Seward, the Foreign Committee recommended a non-recognition in the House amendment to joint resolution of sympathy with Spain.

Mr. Davis offered a resolution that the thanks of the Senate be due and be hereby tendered to Mr. Wade for the ability, impartiality and justice with which he discharged his duties as passing officer during the time he has occupied the Chair. Adopted unanimously.

BOSTON, (N. Y.) February 27.—Measures are progressing for the erection of an international bridge over the Niagara at this point. An iron bridge between ports of communication, and the city is to be given the name of International Bridge. The Grand Trunk Railway Company agreed to pay $60,000 annually for the privilege of passing trains. The city Committees are in full agreement.

A resolution was passed granting causes for the erection of a monument to Gen. McPherson.

Mr. Collyer offered a joint resolution discharging the great command with which the United States would proceed in its enforcement of the laws of the land, and the city is to be given the name of International City. The Grand Trunk Railway Company agreed to pay $60,000 annually for the privilege of passing trains.

Measures are progressing for the erection of a bridge over the Niagara at this point. An iron bridge between ports of communication, and the city is to be given the name of International Bridge. The Grand Trunk Railway Company agreed to pay $60,000 annually for the privilege of passing trains.

Measures are progressing for the erection of a bridge over the Niagara at this point. An iron bridge between ports of communication, and the city is to be given the name of International Bridge. The Grand Trunk Railway Company agreed to pay $60,000 annually for the privilege of passing trains.

Measures are progressing for the erection of a bridge over the Niagara at this point. An iron bridge between ports of communication, and the city is to be given the name of International Bridge. The Grand Trunk Railway Company agreed to pay $60,000 annually for the privilege of passing trains.

Measures are progressing for the erection of a bridge over the Niagara at this point. An iron bridge between ports of communication, and the city is to be given the name of International Bridge. The Grand Trunk Railway Company agreed to pay $60,000 annually for the privilege of passing trains.

Measures are progressing for the erection of a bridge over the Niagara at this point. An iron bridge between ports of communication, and the city is to be given the name of International Bridge. The Grand Trunk Railway Company agreed to pay $60,000 annually for the privilege of passing trains.

Measures are progressing for the erection of a bridge over the Niagara at this point. An iron bridge between ports of communication, and the city is to be given the name of International Bridge. The Grand Trunk Railway Company agreed to pay $60,000 annually for the privilege of passing trains.

Measures are progressing for the erection of a bridge over the Niagara at this point. An iron bridge between ports of communication, and the city is to be given the name of International Bridge. The Grand Trunk Railway Company agreed to pay $60,000 annually for the privilege of passing trains.

Measures are progressing for the erection of a bridge over the Niagara at this point. An iron bridge between ports of communication, and the city is to be given the name of International Bridge. The Grand Trunk Railway Company agreed to pay $60,000 annually for the privilege of passing trains.

Measures are progressing for the erection of a bridge over the Niagara at this point. An iron bridge between ports of communication, and the city is to be given the name of International Bridge. The Grand Trunk Railway Company agreed to pay $60,000 annually for the privilege of passing trains.

Measures are progressing for the erection of a bridge over the Niagara at this point. An iron bridge between ports of communication, and the city is to be given the name of International Bridge. The Grand Trunk Railway Company agreed to pay $60,000 annually for the privilege of passing trains.

Measures are progressing for the erection of a bridge over the Niagara at this point. An iron bridge between ports of communication, and the city is to be given the name of International Bridge. The Grand Trunk Railway Company agreed to pay $60,000 annually for the privilege of passing trains.

Measures are progressing for the erection of a bridge over the Niagara at this point. An iron bridge between ports of communication, and the city is to be given the name of International Bridge. The Grand Trunk Railway Company agreed to pay $60,000 annually for the privilege of passing trains.

Measures are progressing for the erection of a bridge over the Niagara at this point. An iron bridge between ports of communication, and the city is to be given the name of International Bridge. The Grand Trunk Railway Company agreed to pay $60,000 annually for the privilege of passing trains.

Measures are progressing for the erection of a bridge over the Niagara at this point. An iron bridge between ports of communication, and the city is to be given the name of International Bridge. The Grand Trunk Railway Company agreed to pay $60,000 annually for the privilege of passing trains.

Measures are progressing for the erection of a bridge over the Niagara at this point. An iron bridge between ports of communication, and the city is to be given the name of International Bridge. The Grand Trunk Railway Company agreed to pay $60,000 annually for the privilege of passing trains.

Measures are progressing for the erection of a bridge over the Niagara at this point. An iron bridge between ports of communication, and the city is to be given the name of International Bridge. The Grand Trunk Railway Company agreed to pay $60,000 annually for the privilege of passing trains.

Measures are progressing for the erection of a bridge over the Niagara at this point. An iron bridge between ports of communication, and the city is to be given the name of International Bridge. The Grand Trunk Railway Company agreed to pay $60,000 annually for the privilege of passing trains.

Measures are progressing for the erection of a bridge over the Niagara at this point. An iron bridge between ports of communication, and the city is to be given the name of International Bridge. The Grand Trunk Railway Company agreed to pay $60,000 annually for the privilege of passing trains.

Measures are progressing for the erection of a bridge over the Niagara at this point. An iron bridge between ports of communication, and the city is to be given the name of International Bridge. The Grand Trunk Railway Company agreed to pay $60,000 annually for the privilege of passing trains.

Measures are progressing for the erection of a bridge over the Niagara at this point. An iron bridge between ports of communication, and the city is to be given the name of International Bridge. The Grand Trunk Railway Company agreed to pay $60,000 annually for the privilege of passing trains.

Measures are progressing for the erection of a bridge over the Niagara at this point. An iron bridge between ports of communication, and the city is to be given the name of International Bridge. The Grand Trunk Railway Company agreed to pay $60,000 annually for the privilege of passing trains.

Measures are progressing for the erection of a bridge over the Niagara at this point. An iron bridge between ports of communication, and the city is to be given the name of International Bridge. The Grand Trunk Railway Company agreed to pay $60,000 annually for the privilege of passing trains.

Measures are progressing for the erection of a bridge over the Niagara at this point. An iron bridge between ports of communication, and the city is to be given the name of International Bridge. The Grand Trunk Railway Company agreed to pay $60,000 annually for the privilege of passing trains.

Measures are progressing for the erection of a bridge over the Niagara at this point. An iron bridge between ports of communication, and the city is to be given the name of International Bridge. The Grand Trunk Railway Company agreed to pay $60,000 annually for the privilege of passing trains.

Measures are progressing for the erection of a bridge over the Niagara at this point. An iron bridge between ports of communication, and the city is to be given the name of International Bridge. The Grand Trunk Railway Company agreed to pay $60,000 annually for the privilege of passing trains.

Measures are progressing for the erection of a bridge over the Niagara at this point. An iron bridge between ports of communication, and the city is to be given the name of International Bridge. The Grand Trunk Railway Company agreed to pay $60,000 annually for the privilege of passing trains.

Measures are progressing for the erection of a bridge over the Niagara at this point. An iron bridge between ports of communication, and the city is to be given the name of International Bridge. The Grand Trunk Railway Company agreed to pay $60,000 annually for the privilege of passing trains.

Measures are progressing for the erection of a bridge over the Niagara at this point. An iron bridge between ports of communication, and the city is to be given the name of International Bridge. The Grand Trunk Railway Company agreed to pay $60,000 annually for the privilege of passing trains.

Measures are progressing for the erection of a bridge over the Niagara at this point. An iron bridge between ports of communication, and the city is to be given the name of International Bridge. The Grand Trunk Railway Company agreed to pay $60,000 annually for the privilege of passing trains.

MEXICO., March 16.—Other negroes concerned in the murder of General Bustamante were arrested at Mexico, including the man who fired the shot.

NEW YORK., March 18.—Late letters from Brazil state that Lopez was steadily regaining his army from the remnant of the old forces, and natives who had before the day of the allied Army. He is said to be preparing, among the people not to give up or desert. They believe logically all he claims.

WASHINGTON., March 18.—The Senate has passed the bill containing the Educational and Cultural Departments of the President's Bureau to the first of January next.

In the House, the substitute for the Alaska-For-Protection Bill was referred to the Committee on Commerce.

WASHINGTON., March 18.—In the Senate the debate on the Treasury-Office bill occupied the Senate till 10 P. M., when, without a vote, the Senate voted to adjourn, instead of voting.

WAGNER., March 18.—General Grant, at the Senate Inquiry, proffered his services to the Senate for the defense of the Union.

CARIBBEAN., March 18.—The Land Grant bill, already proposed by this session, will be voted for $1,000,000 acres, besides extensions of bonds.

GENERAL TRENCH. is not going to California.

NEW YORK., March 18.—A Harvey letter says that Major Edward Bowles, a son of John Bowles, of Florida, who was the Comptroller of the Bank of Florida, was compelled to put into one of the Banking Banks by an account to her manager. She discharged her cargo and left New York, but on the way to San Francisco she was captured and the cargo was captured.

A motion to strike out the clause inserting the name of the Department of Commerce was rejected by a standing vote.

NEW YORK., March 18.—The House voted $100,000 additional for the construction of the Hudson River Tunnel.

PHILADELPHIA., March 18.—The new Commercial Exchange was dedicated to the public. It cost a quarter of a million dollars. Donations from various boards of trade were present at the opening in the evening.

NEW YORK., March 18.—The Standing Rules has been adopted by the Senate.

NEW YORK., March 18.—A Spanish special service for Senator Judson's Committee, after a lengthy session, decided to recommend that he should be succeeded by the Senator of Ohio.

It is anticipated that this course will give him more time to devote upon his several of applications for legislation.

NEW YORK., March 18.—A. H. Barney, President of Wells, Fargo & Co's Express, states that the Union Pacific Railroad will not open for a week. There have been no through trains either way since the 18th.

NEW YORK., March 18.—The House voted $100,000 additional for the construction of the Hudson River Tunnel.

NEW YORK., March 18.—The new Commercial Exchange was dedicated to the public. It cost a quarter of a million dollars. Donations from various boards of trade were present at the opening in the evening.

NEW YORK., March 18.—A Spanish special service for Senator Judson's Committee, after a lengthy session, decided to recommend that he should be succeeded by the Senator of Ohio.

It is anticipated that this course will give him more time to devote upon his several of applications for legislation.

NEW YORK., March 18.—A Spanish special service for Senator Judson's Committee, after a lengthy session, decided to recommend that he should be succeeded by the Senator of Ohio.

It is anticipated that this course will give him more time to devote upon his several of applications for legislation.

NEW YORK., March 18.—A Spanish special service for Senator Judson's Committee, after a lengthy session, decided to recommend that he should be succeeded by the Senator of Ohio.

It is anticipated that this course will give him more time to devote upon his several of applications for legislation.

NEW YORK., March 18.—A Spanish special service for Senator Judson's Committee, after a lengthy session, decided to recommend that he should be succeeded by the Senator of Ohio.

It is anticipated that this course will give him more time to devote upon his several of applications for legislation.

NEW YORK., March 18.—A Spanish special service for Senator Judson's Committee, after a lengthy session, decided to recommend that he should be succeeded by the Senator of Ohio.

It is anticipated that this course will give him more time to devote upon his several of applications for legislation.

NEW YORK., March 18.—A Spanish special service for Senator Judson's Committee, after a lengthy session, decided to recommend that he should be succeeded by the Senator of Ohio.

It is anticipated that this course will give him more time to devote upon his several of applications for legislation.

NEW YORK., March 18.—A Spanish special service for Senator Judson's Committee, after a lengthy session, decided to recommend that he should be succeeded by the Senator of Ohio.

It is anticipated that this course will give him more time to devote upon his several of applications for legislation.

NEW YORK., March 18.—A Spanish special service for Senator Judson's Committee, after a lengthy session, decided to recommend that he should be succeeded by the Senator of Ohio.

It is anticipated that this course will give him more time to devote upon his several of applications for legislation.

NEW YORK., March 18.—A Spanish special service for Senator Judson's Committee, after a lengthy session, decided to recommend that he should be succeeded by the Senator of Ohio.

It is anticipated that this course will give him more time to devote upon his several of applications for legislation.

NEW YORK., March 18.—A Spanish special service for Senator Judson's Committee, after a lengthy session, decided to recommend that he should be succeeded by the Senator of Ohio.

It is anticipated that this course will give him more time to devote upon his several of applications for legislation.

NEW YORK., March 18.—A Spanish special service for Senator Judson's Committee, after a lengthy session, decided to recommend that he should be succeeded by the Senator of Ohio.

It is anticipated that this course will give him more time to devote upon his several of applications for legislation.

MEXICO., March 16.—Other negroes concerned in the murder of General Bustamante were arrested at Mexico, including the man who fired the shot.

NEW YORK., March 18.—Late letters from Brazil state that Lopez was steadily regaining his army from the remnant of the old forces, and natives who had before the day of the allied Army.

He is said to be preparing, among the people not to give up or desert. They believe logically all he claims.

NEW YORK., March 18.—The Senate has passed the bill containing the Educational and Cultural Departments of the President's Bureau to the first of January next.

In the House, the substitute for the Alaska-For-Protection Bill was referred to the Committee on Commerce.

NEW YORK., March 18.—The Senate has passed the bill containing the Educational and Cultural Departments of the President's Bureau to the first of January next.

In the House, the substitute for the Alaska-For-Protection Bill was referred to the Committee on Commerce.

NEW YORK., March 18.—The Senate has passed the bill containing the Educational and Cultural Departments of the President's Bureau to the first of January next.

In the House, the substitute for the Alaska-For-Protection Bill was referred to the Committee on Commerce.

NEW YORK., March 18.—The Senate has passed the bill containing the Educational and Cultural Departments of the President's Bureau to the first of January next.

In the House, the substitute for the Alaska-For-Protection Bill was referred to the Committee on Commerce.

NEW YORK., March 18.—The Senate has passed the bill containing the Educational and Cultural Departments of the President's Bureau to the first of January next.

In the House, the substitute for the Alaska-For-Protection Bill was referred to the Committee on Commerce.

NEW YORK., March 18.—The Senate has passed the bill containing the Educational and Cultural Departments of the President's Bureau to the first of January next.

In the House, the substitute for the Alaska-For-Protection Bill was referred to the Committee on Commerce.

NEW YORK., March 18.—The Senate has passed the bill containing the Educational and Cultural Departments of the President's Bureau to the first of January next.

In the House, the substitute for the Alaska-For-Protection Bill was referred to the Committee on Commerce.

NEW YORK., March 18.—The Senate has passed the bill containing the Educational and Cultural Departments of the President's Bureau to the first of January next.

In the House, the substitute for the Alaska-For-Protection Bill was referred to the Committee on Commerce.

NEW YORK., March 18.—The Senate has passed the bill containing the Educational and Cultural Departments of the President's Bureau to the first of January next.

In the House, the substitute for the Alaska-For-Protection Bill was referred to the Committee on Commerce.

NEW YORK., March 18.—The Senate has passed the bill containing the Educational and Cultural Departments of the President's Bureau to the first of January next.

In the House, the substitute for the Alaska-For-Protection Bill was referred to the Committee on Commerce.

NEW YORK., March 18.—The Senate has passed the bill containing the Educational and Cultural Departments of the President's Bureau to the first of January next.